Dear Dr. Stilwell:

Through Mr. W. Gedney Beatty, we have just received the catalogue of the Lobbecke Collection, which you have so kindly presented to our Library. Thank you very much indeed. I feel sure you would enjoy a visit to our Museum, and when we are into our new building I hope we shall have the pleasure of welcoming you here and of showing you some of the things entrusted to us which will give you pleasure.

With cordial personal regards, I am

Very cordially yours,

Secretary
